Recommendation

CalAmp recommends customers anticipate the changing ecosystem of the domestic USA 3G HSPA network, and prepare for the transition to LTE. CalAmp has been, and continues to release new & refreshed products with LTE support. The suggested successor products for each respective part number are detailed on this notice.

Effectivity

CalAmp will try to accommodate all customer demand; however, once current stock levels have been depleted, the current VG3000 models (noted EOL part numbers) will no longer be available to order.
